All About Our Featured Artist, Karen Galemba

Born in Sheridan, Wyoming into a ranching family, Karen began life as an incurable outdoors girl. She was on horseback from the beginning and made her love of horses into a lifelong career. She accomplished four qualifications to the National Finals Rodeo plus numerous futurity wins.

In 1987 a horse related accident sidelined her, resulting in the beginning of quite a successful sculpting career with sculptures sold and displayed throughout the U.S. and overseas. Keeping with the equine forum, she also includes other animals in her art. Karen says "Sculpting is something I can completely lose myself in and hope to do forever."

Karen works in watercolor as well and began adding colored pencil to her work after taking a class by Phil Micheau at the HAA gallery. Working from home in Sierra Vista, AZ, she enjoys creating her own ideas and doing commissions.

IN HONOR OF KAREN
