GALLERY HOURS- Tues-Saturday 11 Am-5pm

Featured Artist for March & April
Local photographer: Sean Yeterian

Sean Yeterian – Arizonan Yeti

Sean Yeterian retired from the Army in 2006 as a Field Artillery Sergeant Major. In 2016 he returned to college and completed the required classes to receive a Media Production Arts degree from Cochise College. He was honored by being added to the President's List for academic achievement.

Since being bitten by the Photography bug in August of 2016 he hasn't looked back. An accomplished photographer his images have been displayed in galleries around the world including Amsterdam, Athens Greece, Slovenia, Melbourne Australia, Barcelona, and Seoul Korea.

Locally Sean's work has been selected for use with the marketing department at Cochise County Tourism Council and displayed in the SoHo Imagine Calendar (2019, 2020, and 2021). Most recently he was recognized by Cochise College by having his work exhibited in the Library Commons, and as a guest speaker.

Sean's personal mantra is "The most beautiful place in the world is right there, where you are." He insists that there is no place on the planet that, when viewed with the right perspective, offers less beauty than any other place on the planet. He says, "You just need to learn how to see it. It will be there waiting until you do."

Sean was born in Dade City Florida and raised in Lompoc California. His wife, Siggy, hails from Augsburg Germany.

~Meet the Artist at the AP Reception, April 2 from 1-5 pm, photo raffle for those present at 3pm~

President's Message 03-20-2022

Happy April, Artyfolks,

Ahhh Spring!!!.....babbling brooks, misty rain, tulips and daffodils in leafy glades! That's all so lovely, but most of that poetic sentiment does not much apply to us, here in our dry and thorny world. At least not right now - not until after the rains come anyway. While I kind of miss that lush and loamy kind of spring, even now, looking around my yard, I do already see verbenas in bloom and penstemons putting up stalks, soon to be masses of little tubular pink flowers – a hummingbird heaven. Meanwhile, on the other side of the world, it seems like April is looking to be the cruelest month. Seeing on TV all the death and destruction, I'm guessing that for those unfortunate Ukrainian people, suddenly homeless in the rubble, the promise of spring may not be much of a consolation for all the senseless and appalling loss. I for one, am very thankful to be here, not there, and I can only hope that, somehow, someone can put an end to this disastrous conflict before too long.

But on the brighter side, at least the pandemic seems to be petering out, here in Arizona anyway, and at least for now. At the HAA, it's pretty much back to business as usual, with a full schedule of programs, workshops, classes and open studio. The Michael Nolan workshop was a great success, and we are hoping to be able to offer another one in the months to come. Sue Ziegler has been busy lining up demos, workshops and other activities for well into the future. Beginning on March 29 and ending in May, Gabrielle LaFargue will be conducting a series of four Calligraphy classes on selected Wednesdays. Then, April starts off with an Open House/Reception for Featured Artist, Sean Yetarian on the 2nd. Joanne Berry will be continuing her Oil Painting classes on Tuesdays, and Laurie Carlisle will be hosting an Acrylic Paint Party on Saturday the 9th. On Saturday, April 16, Pat Richey will be doing a workshop using a Watercolor Batik technique on masa paper, and then on the following Saturday, Meta Geske's Alcohol Ink group will be meeting again. You will find more information on all these events in this Artyfacts and also online in the special Upcoming Events email bulletins.

And, by the way, if you haven't been to the Sierra Vista Library lately, it's worth a trip there to see longtime gallery artist and recently retired board member, Karl's Hallsten's beautiful ceramic mural that has been installed on a pillar inside the building. It's a happy addition to the space, one that people will be enjoying for years to come. So Karl is moving away, but not without leaving some pieces of himself behind, and that includes many of the tiles surrounding our gallery door and windows. So, our thanks go out to Karl for his contributions to the gallery, and best wishes to him in his new home.

And on the subject of contributions, if you have been to the studio lately, you may have noticed that we now have a whole bunch of brand new stacking banquet chairs, replacing most of our decrepit old folding chairs. The chairs were paid for by an anonymous donor, with the HAA paying only for the shipping. This is a big improvement that's been long overdue, so thank you again, "Anonymous" whoever you may be.

And finally, on behalf of the board, I'd like to thank Darlene Wilkenson, for stepping in to fill the seat vacated by Yvonne Navarro. Welcome, Darlene!

Hippity, hoppity, Happy Easter,

Liz

Thank you Michael Nolan for an: "Outstandingly Successful Workshop!"

March 12 and 13...2 jam packed days of thought provoking, novel instruction by Michael Nolan. After day one, Michael revamped the instruction for day two...feeling the need to make it more in-depth and challenging for our talented group of artists. He thoroughly enjoyed his time at the HAA.

Personally, I would like to give my thanks to all who participated. Your commitment to the workshop made it the success that it was. You all jumped in with both feet and then some! Your enthusiasm for the event...and the instructor...has encouraged Michael to do it again in a few months. I believe color theory is next on his agenda.
