PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE for February 2021 by Liz Horning

Happy February, Artyfolks,

At last, some good news. The Gallery will be opening for business again on Wednesday, February 17. For about six weeks, during the post- holiday spike, the Covid-19 case numbers in Cochise County were averaging about 150 a day. For the past few weeks, those numbers have dropped sharply, down to about 30 a day, which is back down to about what it was last March when this nightmare was just getting started and we first went into lockdown. Now, with the vaccines becoming more readily available, we can hope to be able to operate more safely, but that does not mean that we can stop taking all the necessary precautions. The vaccines will protect you from serious illness, but not from contracting a mild case of the virus and/or being an asymptomatic spreader. Plus, it appears that some of the mutant strains of the virus, that may be more easily transmissible, are spreading rapidly, and may require extra caution. So, masks and social distancing will still be required of everyone for the time being.

In the meantime, plans are in the works for a Members' Show in August. Since we can't be sure as yet whether or not a reception will be possible at that time, plans now are to conduct an Open House instead. More information on this event will be coming soon.

We are also taking steps to enhance our visibility on Instagram and Facebook with more images of our artists' work, so we will be putting out a call for some of those sometime soon. And the coloring book project is still in the works. More info on that can be found below. Please let me know if you have a drawing to contribute, as we'd like to get started putting a book together as soon as possible.

Art in the Park is on track to resume in the fall, and we are hoping that it will be one of our best ever. There should be lots of pent up consumer demand, plus perhaps, an abundance of arts and crafts inventory, given that so many shows have had to be cancelled over the past year, and a lot of vendors have had a lot of time on their hands. Applications can be downloaded from our website.

The "winter of our discontent" is almost over, and spring is on its way. Hippy hoppity.

Stay safe.

Liz

A CALL TO ARTISTS

HAA COLORING BOOK PROJECT

We are looking for artists to produce line drawings suitable for a coloring book – one that we can print up and offer for sale as a fundraiser at the gallery, and perhaps online and in other venues as well. The book will measure 8.5 x 11, and so the pictures need to be done in sizes roughly proportional to that, but the art may be done larger, and then sized to fit. The drawings should be done in black ink or marker, in either a vertical or horizontal format. We'd especially like to see lots of drawings with a Southern Arizona flavor, but also would like to have a variety of subjects, in different styles, and varying degrees of difficulty. It has been suggested that some might be done in a kind of doodling, geometric or "zentangle" style. They might be totally abstract, or depictions of landscapes, wildlife, birds, insects, reptiles, still life subjects, etc. They could be done in either a stylistic or realistic manner, or even linear or decorative versions of the artist's previous artworks. If you google "coloring books" online, you can find lots of ideas for subject matter and styles, but it is very important that these drawings be your own original artwork. We cannot use anything that might result in copyright issues. We have not yet set a deadline for submissions, but we may start putting the first book together as soon as we have enough to work with. Obviously, since this is a fundraiser, we won't be paying for the designs, but here's a fine opportunity for members to make a non-cash contribution to the HAA. If you have a drawing you'd like to submit, you can email Liz, at: Lhorningfa@q.com, and we can arrange to have it either scanned or photographed.

Thank you to our Recent Donors

When we reach another $2,000 in donations, the Edie Manion Memorial Fund has graciously offered to match with a $2,000 donation again! Thank you for helping us toward our goal!
