All About Our Featured Artist, Lois Bravo

After she retired and moved to Sierra Vista in 2009, Lois became fascinated with the local wild life, hummingbirds, sunsets, and flowers. This fascination ignited her interest in capturing these things with her Nikon SLR camera.

Lois & her husband Dave, have spent the last 16 years traveling and capturing their adventures in photos from Australia, Japan, France, Spain, Italy, St.Maarten, Tahiti, many states in the USA, Canada, Bermuda, LaPaz Mexico and Caribbean Islands, and cruising around South America.

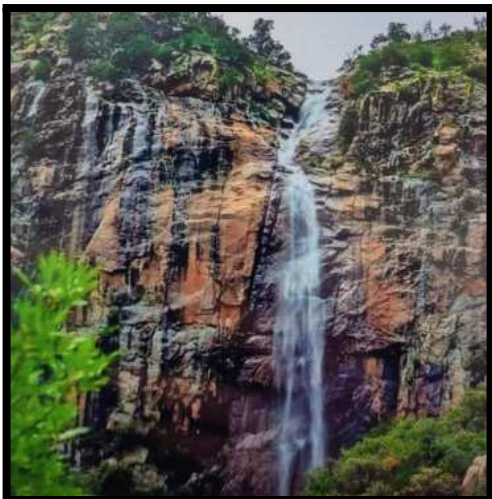

In 2011 Lois became a member of the Huachuca Art Association. She is a board member, bookkeeper and is the chair of Art in the Park.

. A Letter From Our President, Naomi Blackwell

Greetings Artyfolk!

A New Year is here, and though the Holidays are not far behind us, the busy season is not yet past; there's plenty going on at the gallery in the month of January!

This month's Featured Artist is Lois Bravo, whose photography will be adorning the featured artist space for the first month of the year, before we hang the Open Show in February. January's reception will take place on Saturday, January 3rd from 3-5 at the gallery, and as always I encourage anyone who can to come and support your fellow HAA artist, and spend some time with us at the gallery.

Then, on January 17th, we will once again be hosting a Day of Demos at the Gallery, during which four artists will be on the premises conducting a demonstration of an art or craft. The Demos will be taking place from 9 AM-12PM, and are open to anyone who would like to come by and observe; and if anything in particular tickles your fancy, there may be upcoming classes in the works for the demonstrated techniques. This day's demos will be on Framing; Encaustic Wax, Soft Pastels and Wire Wrapping.

Finally, for the month of January, I would like to mention the Acrylic Class on the 24th with Elaine Wells, from 1-4PM. If this Class is of interest, the sign up sheet is available in the gallery.

Now, on to the Open Show; the Show will be hanging in the gallery February 1st-28th. The firm deadline for submitting the entry form and entry fee for the show is January 24th. The updated entry forms and guidelines are available at the gallery as well as having been sent out to the membership via email; there have been some changes to the guidelines from years past, so please give them a read when you have the time; and many thanks once again to those that put in the time and effort to overhaul the Open Show rules.

Lastly, as it is a new year, I would like to gently remind everyone that, if you haven't done so already, 2026 membership fees are due, and it would be ideal if everyone who will be renewing their membership with the HAA does so by the end of January, just so we can get it squared away, and all relevant lists updated and current.

And Everyone; thank you, sincerely for being a part of our HAA community; none of this would happen without all of you. Here's to another year of fellowship and creativity; and many more to follow.

'Ta for now,

Naomi B.

HAA President

A Tribute to Our Friend & Fellow Artist

Sue Ziegler

November 2nd, 1948 – November 24th, 2025

Some people move quietly through the world and still manage to change everything around them. Sue Ziegler was one of those people.

Born in Concord, New Hampshire, educated in Boston, and ultimately rooted here in the foothills of Hereford, Arizona, Sue carried a lifetime of compassion, intelligence, and creativity everywhere she went. She dedicated her early career to children — teaching in Boston Public Schools and later guiding young minds as the Children's Librarian for the Littleton Public Library. Her love of stories, imagination, and learning became part of her fingerprint on the world.

When she and her husband Steve retired to Sierra Vista in 2004, the rest of us got lucky. Because Sue didn't retire from life. She stepped into the community with the same devotion she'd given her students. She created art, she encouraged artists, and she gave the Huachuca Art Gallery a kind of steady heartbeat — the kind that only someone who truly gets people, and truly gets life, can give. Sue was never loud about it. She didn't need to be. Her encouragement was personal. Her involvement was consistent. Her belief in the artists of this community was unwavering. She helped keep the gallery relevant, thriving, and connected — not because she wanted recognition, but because she wanted others to shine.

If you ever wondered how many lives one person can lift... the answer is: more than she ever took credit for.

In her quieter moments, Sue read voraciously, shaped beauty from gourds and quilling, and in recent years discovered a natural talent for painting — as if the universe looked at her life of service and said, "Here, try this too."

Sue leaves behind her husband and soulmate, Steve, her children, grandchildren, and extended family — all carrying her love, her humor, and her quiet strength forward. But she also leaves behind a space in the Huachuca Art Gallery that cannot simply be filled. We'll try — because she taught us to try — but there was only one Sue. And there will only ever be one. She got life right. That's not something you can say about many people. It's something we can say about her without hesitation.

So what can we do for Sue?

We honor her by lifting each other the way she lifted us. We encourage the timid artist. We show up for the community that she helped build. We celebrate creativity, kindness, and the quiet power of being good. And we keep her with us — in the work we do, the art we create, and the way we treat people.

You are missed Sue ❤️

Framing with Nathaniel Zoret-Russel

Learn how to choose the right frame for your artwork, how to cut matting and stretch canvas.

Encaustic Wax Painting with Wilma Mrosek-Richards

The entire painting is 'ironed' with bees wax and paint. Coffee grounds and various other materials will be used to embed in the wax painting as well.

Soft Pastels with J Star

I've worked in soft pastel for about twenty-five years; I find it a most forgiving medium and the first one in which colour makes sense. My demo will be about the forgiveness of pastels and the ease of use of sanded surfaces and, especially, how colour works in pastel.

Wire Wrapping with Naomi Blackwell

Naomi will be demonstrating how to turn various shapes and sizes of un-drilled stones into wearable jewelry by creating frames and settings using Copper Wire. Come and see her process, and ask any questions you might have about how this kind of jewelry is made.

ACRYLIC CLASS with Elaine Wells

Saturday, January 24th 1-4 PM $35

Elaine will teach ways to use acrylic paint that creates depth with value variation and harmony through color blending and glazing. We will do a landscape painting in this manner or you're welcome to bring a photo of your choice from which to paint. We will discuss composition, balance, color, value and much more.

All materials, including a 12 x 16 canvas, will be provided.
