Greetings Artyfolks!

It may not quite feel like it, considering the unseasonably warm weather, but November is here! Another Art in the Park is successfully behind us, so now we can all start preparing for next year! I am joking, mostly. I do want to issue a hearty Thank You! to everyone who volunteered to help set up, manage parking, man the Info Booth, or take on any of the other numerous tasks that needed doing; Art in the Park could not happen without your many hands. And especially I would like to thank Lois Bravo, for once again wrangling the organizing of it all; it's a lot of hard work, and it is very appreciated.

What we do have to look forward to this month is our annual Student Art Show, which will be taking the place of the Featured Artist for the month of November only, in which anyone who has taken a class at the HAA over the course of the year is invited to display the work they have done during and as a result of those classes.

There will be a reception for the Student Art Show on Saturday, November 2nd; so please come out to celebrate the work of those who took it upon themselves to try something new this year!

Additionally, keep an eye on the Calendar for upcoming Classes, as we move closer to the holidays. After all, what better, more heartfelt gift than something you made yourself?

In any case, that is all I have to speak about on this particular occasion, so I 'll keep this letter brief.

Catch you in the next Artyfacts,

Naomi B.
